Health in All Policies

Equal right to health for all...

Everyone has the right to a standard of living adequate for the health and well-being of themselves and their family.
The United Nations International Declaration of Human Rights

...but this right is being denied to people living in poverty and social exclusion.

Did you know that:

...you will be younger than the 2.5 years earlier and women die 2.7 years earlier compared to affluent areas.
